EXPLORE
OUR RANGE OF AMAZING
CRUISE DEALS

Welcome to our Autumn edition of Come Aboard

I hope you, your family and loved ones are keeping very well. We're delighted to be sharing the latest news from the world of cruising and hope we're able to inspire you with our hand-picked itineraries.

This time last year, the world of cruise was at a standstill. It still feels surreal to think that international cruise was virtually non-existent for sixteen months. While ships may have been absent from our oceans and rivers, the cruise industry did not stop moving and has returned with even more to offer than ever before.

Innovation at sea continues to surprise and there are a myriad of new ships and experiential onboard features on the horizon. With many of us dreaming of the places we longed to visit during lockdown, wanderlust is being recreated in the cruise industry in the form of more daring and adventurous itineraries, many blending land and sea experiences.

Return-to-cruise programmes for UK customers launched in early summer with itineraries designed to take in the best of the British Isles. And, these cruise holidays did not disappoint. The overwhelmingly positive response from passengers embarking at home ports across the country has been sensational and is a clear signal that cruising remains as popular as ever – if not, more so.

From new-to-cruise to seasoned cruisers, these coastal voyages captured the hearts of all of our clients, reminding us just how special a cruise holiday can be. Our cruise line partners have worked incredibly hard to enhance health and safety protocols on board to help keep you feeling safe – and without compromising on experience.

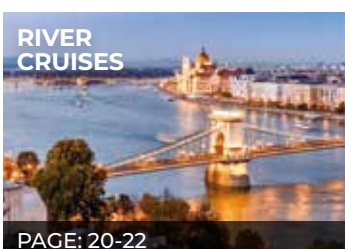

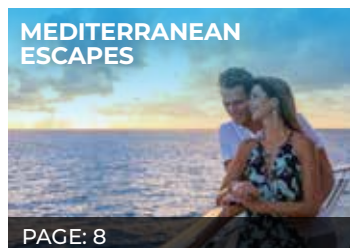

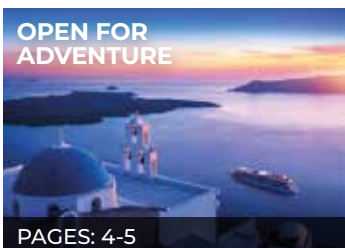

For your peace of mind, our Stress-Free Guarantee remains in place. When you book your next cruise holiday with Brilliant Travel, you can rest assured that your money is completely financially protected, no matter what. We also know flexibility is important to you which is why we're offering an unrivalled flexible booking policy which allows you to change your cruise, free of charge, up to 6 weeks before departure.

Whether you're looking to get away on a last-minute cruise this winter or are planning a little further ahead, our cruise experts are here to help you book your dream holiday, supporting you every step of the way.

We hope you enjoy browsing our magazine and we look forward to chatting all things cruise with you and helping you book your trip very soon.

Warmest regards
Brilliant Travel

HOLIDAY ITINERARY

Day 1: Depart UK to Calgary, Alberta. On arrival transfer to Banff and overnight.

Day 2: Time to explore Banff. If you're looking for the best view, then the Banff Gondola is a must. Have your camera to see one of the most famous Canadian sites from the top of Sulphur Mountain. End your evening by dining out in downtown Banff.

Day 3: Transfer to Jasper where you will overnight. This would be a great afternoon to take a helicopter tour of the area. You'll get a new perspective on how magnificent the area really is.

Day 4: A full day in Jasper to experience what this magnificent area has to offer. We suggest the Columbia ice field. This is the largest body of ice in Canada and feeds three of the globe's oceans – the Pacific, the North Atlantic and the Arctic. A must to check out firsthand

Day 5: Today you will board the award-winning Rocky Mountaineer and begin your journey to Vancouver. Cameras are a must today as you make your way through the rugged alpine terrain to Kamloops where you will overnight.

Day 6: Continue your journey on the luxurious Rocky Mountaineer. Today you will meander your way along by dramatic canyons to the lush coastal mountains into Vancouver. Check one item off the 'bucket list'. Overnight Vancouver

Day 7: Spend your day exploring Vancouver. This beautiful Pacific Coastal city set against a backdrop of mountains and beaches has so much to offer.

Day 8: Make your way to the Vancouver port to embark on your Alaska Cruise on board Celebrity Eclipse®.

Day 9: Spend the day sailing the Inside Passage, a region of pristine water, snow-capped mountains, deep fjords and forested islands.

Day 10: Dock in the afternoon at Icy Strait Point. Here you will find more brown bears than humans! Enjoy the Hoonah, Alaska's largest Native Tlingit Village and check out the world's largest Ziprider.

Day 11: The glacier routinely calves off icebergs the size of ten-storey buildings. Learn this and more as you spend part of your day in Disenchantment Bay in front of the Hubbard Glacier.

Day 12: Arrive early in the morning at Alaska's capital, Juneau. Spend the day exploring. Option to Tour the Mendenhall Glacier and go whale watching and wildlife viewing. Try the Alaskan seafood trifecta: salmon, halibut and crab.

Day 13: Dock after lunch in Ketchikan. Tour the area by foot, kayak, bike or try the zipline. Seeing the sights is easy in Ketchikan. Even if you just stand in the middle of town and look out over the waterfront, you've already taken in more natural beauty than most people do in a month

Day 14: Another day cruising the Inside Passage have your camera ready, you have a second chance to catch what you missed the first time.

Day 15: Disembark and make your way to your downtown Vancouver hotel. This would be a great opportunity to use your Hop-on Hop-off pass so you can decide what you want to go back and see later.

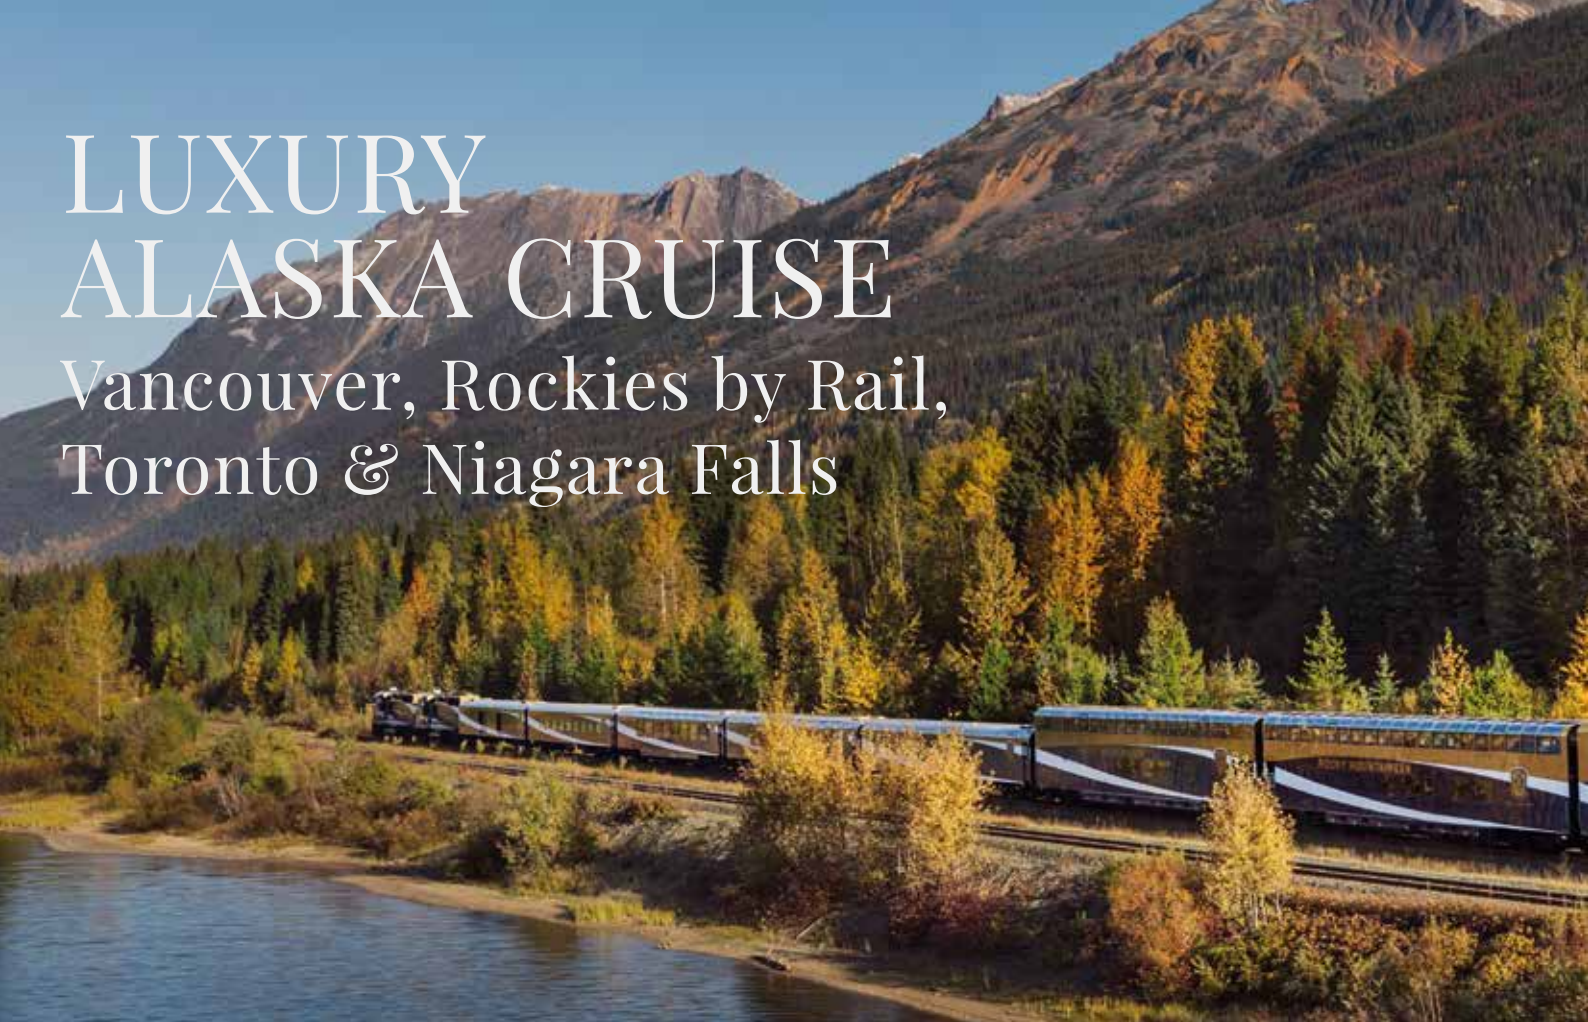

Day 16: We recommend Granville Island, Stanley Park and Chinatown. Continue your west coast seafood extravaganza by trying out a couple of new restaurants.

Day 17: Time to say goodbye to Canada and Alaska and fly back home with a camera full of photos, some incredible experiences and many, many wonderful memories.
